Maintenance Report Tuesday the 14th of July, the council and Dustin will open bids for the Spring Development project.

Jessie Whitesides would like to place her meter on the property of other property owners. The council will need a recorded legal easement and all necessary paper and signatures. Doug Robinson made a motion and then rescinded his motion and discussion was heard by the council. It was decided that when Jessie provides the council with the necessary information and legal paperwork and signatures the council will again take it up for a vote.

No licenses hookup or Permits

Council Reports

Water Doug Robinson: Leon Bogedahl would like the town to help repair part of the road by is house that was disturbed when the new water line was put in. Scott will go talk to Leon and offer some solutions as to how the town can help.

Road and Cemetery Jordan Pace. Everything is going well with the cemetery and Roads

Trees and Park Pat Kearney Park is looking good grass is growing.

Pearl Thorndal-Stewart. Much was heard on the ordinance of Zoning. It came to the attention of the council that we needed a legal surveyed map of the business and residential area. Discussion was heard on the heritage district and how big it was going to be; however, the council could not conclude as to what it should include. Paula will call David Church, Richard Chamberlain, and Colleen Allen and set up a meeting to help move the ordinance along and come to a consensus of what to do next concerning the land survey.

The issue of the Post office was discussed. As well as how to make the zone available for the fire house.

Unfinished business

Torreys 4th of July event went well, and everyone seemed to enjoy it. The dinner was a success, and the town made a little money from it. The Patriotic program was successful, and the fireworks went well, and people enjoyed the presentation. Bruce Phillips and several others will be sent a thank you note for their help on the event.

The Council suggested to raise the rent on the town rental. $100. It will be an agenda item next month for the council to vote. Colleen will handle the implementation of this.

The question was asked if a water was ever paid for a water hookup for Jan Spafford. Colleen said it was not.

Art and his cows were discussed. The council said we should get a legal opinion. Paula was asked to call Richard, Chamberlain. The council would like another letter to Art stating that after 10 days, a fine of 75.00 per day will kick in until the matter is resolved. After 10 days, the Cows will be impounded. The town has made arrangements for this to take place.

Motion to adjourn the meeting was made Doug Robinson and seconded by Pat Kearney all were in favor. Motion passed. Meeting was adjourned at 8:29
